An application to the DRA by Cumann Turloch Mór, challenging various decisions of Coiste Eisteachta na Gaillimhe and Coiste Eisteachta Chonnacht surrounding a fixture which took place on the 3rd June 2017 between the Claimant and Portumna CLG, was dismissed by a DRA Tribunal following a hearing at The Bridge House Hotel, Tullamore, Co Offaly on 9 October 2017.

The DRA Tribunal (Mr Aaron Shearer BL, Mr Richard Kennedy, solicitor and Mr Paddy Collins) accepted the Respondent's preliminary objection and found that the Claimant had not exhausted all available avenues of appeal before making application to the Tribunal.

This statement is for information purposes only. The Tribunal's full reasoned, written decision will be communicated to the parties and published on the DRA website in due course.
