A DRA Tribunal comprised of Mr Michael Murray BL, Mr Cian Kelly BL and Mr Páraic Duffy this afternoon heard an application on behalf of Mr Rory Brennan, challenging the decision of the Central Hearings Committee to impose a 12 week suspension across all codes and at all levels for the offence of Minor Physical Interference with a Referee (Rial 7.2 (b) Cat V (i) T.O 2020) arising out of an incident which occurred during the Allianz National League Football match between Donegal and Tyrone on the 18th October 2020. The Claimant also challenged the decision of the Central Appeals Committee to uphold the CHC decision.

Having considered submissions from all parties, the Tribunal dismissed the application.

This statement is for information purposes only. The Tribunal's full reasoned, written decision will be communicated to the parties and published on the DRA website in due course.
